

MORGON

Private Reserve

Les Côtes

The Terroir

The beautiful domaine called “les Côtes” (the hills) is found in Morgon. The second largest cru of the Beaujolais region which produces the sturdiest and robust wines of the area are found in the area of Py and produced by the renowned winemaker Jean-Marc Burgaud.

Varietal / Cepage

100% Gamay, red grape with white juice.

Vinification

The grapes are hand harvested in whole bunches at the optimum time of maturity, and then carefully sorted and selected at the cellars. During fermentation traditional Beaujolais methods are utilized with strict temperature controls to preserve the flavors and characteristics of the gamay.

Description

Ruby red in color with deep purple reflections. The nose is filled with intense perfumes of black fruits, liquorices and prunes. The wine is well balanced and full with hints of vanilla.

Food Pairing

Ideal with small game and meats with sauces.

Suggested serving temperature

Serve slightly chilled around 15°C / 60°F.
Best consumed from 1 to 3 years after bottling.
